IN THE ACT . . . Tom Holland and Edith Simmons, above, rehearse a scene from "Family Portrait," a play about the life of Christ, which will be presented by the Bishop's Company in the Civic Auditorium on Jan. 10, sponsored by the First Methodist Church. The Bishop's Company is composed of professional actors and actresses from television and motion pictures, and was formed to bring serious and purposeful drama back into the church.

Moose to Hold Dance for March Of Dimes Fund

"Please Dance So That Children May Walk" will be the theme of a dance to be presented by the Torrance lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose as part of an overall program by the "March of Dimes" committee, on Saturday, Jan. 30, at 8:30 p.m. at the lodge hall, 1744 Carson St., Daniel Desmond, governor, announced this week.

Proceeds of the dance, to be held on the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's birthday, will go to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and Postmaster Clara A. Comer's local committee.

Desmond announced the appointment of Charles Shiffer as chairman of the committee. Shiffer revealed that tickets for the dance will be available late this week.

Two-A-Month Slate Set for Teen Dances

Low attendance has prompted the Recreation Department to sponsor teen-age dances to sponsor other Saturday instead of each week for the next two months, Harry Van Bellehem, recreation director, announced this week.

Van Bellehem reported that only three or four couples have shown up for the dances during the past month-and-a-half. The next teen-age dance will be held on Jan. 16 in the Civic Auditorium instead of Jan. 9 as previously scheduled. A special Valentine's Day Dance will be held on February 15 with a regular band to provide music, Van Bellehem said and on Jan. 30 and Feb. 27, record dances will be held.

Following the Feb. 27 dance, the schedule for the remainder of the school year will be announced.

Dr. Ross Price To Speak Sunday To Nazarenes

Dr. Ross E. Price, will be the guest speaker at the local church this Sunday at 10 a.m. on "Sunday—the Christian's Sabbath."

Dr. Price is the head of the theology department of the Pasadena Nazarene College, and is well known here, having spoken a number of times at the Torrance church.

At the evening 7:30 service, the pastor will be bringing the Evangelistic message.

This Saturday, plans are made for the men of the congregation to meet and start working on the grounds, preparing for the building of the Church's new Sanctuary.

SEE Heads of Moose To Convene Here

Juvenile delinquency will be the topic under discussion when governors and secretaries of 10 lodges of the Loyal Order of Moose convene in the Torrance Lodge Sunday at 9:30 a.m. for the South Central District's Governor's and Secretary's breakfast, according to Joseph Platt, district vice president.

The increasing juvenile delinquency rate in this area and means of combatting the evil will be discussed by the governors, who represent 2000 members of the Moose and 10 lodges in Southern California.

The Torrance lodge is located at 1744 Carson St.
